Benefits of InterAction Mobility

Having access to the law firm's customer relationship management database when out of the office provides lawyers with the ability to:

- Build and sustain key professional relationships with 'who knows whom' information
- Be more efficient and prepare for meetings on the spot
- Manage schedules spontaneously and look up clients or prospects in the vicinity
- Get directions to a client's office or a meeting location
- Access important details about a client such as their assistant's name, or key dates like a birthday or anniversary

InterAction Mobility will be available to all licensed users of InterAction 6.0 and higher. No data is stored on the user's devices, and the most current information is accessible with a few swipes.
