LexisNexis Case Summaries provide a concise, three-part analysis to help you quickly determine the issues addressed.

- Procedural Posture: Describes the case’s procedural history—how this case arrived before the court at hand.
- Overview: Provides a brief review of the court’s holding on the legal issues raised.
- Outcome: Describes the procedural disposition of the case.

These concise, easy-to-read summaries speed your research with targeted and concise analysis.

Click on Sheppard’s Signal™ to Shepardize® a case

Click on Cite for the full text of a case

Case Summary

Overview in CITE format

Core Terms

How the case arrived at this court

The court’s holding and underlying facts

Procedural disposition of the case
LexisNexis™ Case Summaries & LexisNexis™ Headnotes

LexisNexis Headnotes – (Core Concepts) are key legal points of a case drawn directly from the language of the court.

- Track the language used by the court in discussing the key points of law in the case.
- Uncover additional information by linking directly to relevant sections in the case, other related documents, or to Lexis® Search Advisor.
- Review the main points of a case easily – online or offline.

Ask your LexisNexis™ account representative for more information on LexisNexis Case Summaries and LexisNexis Headnotes, as well as the many other innovative features of the LexisNexis services that are revolutionizing the way lawyers practice law.

LexisNexis™ Customer Service—24/7
1-800-543-6862