

COMPREHENSIVE BUSINESS REPORTS

Public Records and SmartLinx® at lexis.com®

LexisNexis gives you access to 18.8 billion public records, including more than 917 million business records and 1.3 billion business contact records representing more than 381 million unique businesses and 739 million unique business contacts. The vast coverage and the unique SmartLinx linking technology can associate business entities across state lines and across the nation, even connecting entities that don't have public records in common. You reveal relationships beyond the public records documents for business due diligence, such as spotting conflicts of interest, potential fraud, hidden assets, bankruptcies, debt restructuring via liens and more.

Here's how to search at lexis.com:

1. Select the PUBLIC RECORDS tab.

2. Fill in the facts you know.

No search commands needed! The search forms give you fill-in-the-blank simplicity—and true search power. You can mine data in ways impossible with Boolean searching.

Find businesses by entering the:

Business Name: LexisNexis proprietary data-linking technology recognizes similar names, spelling variations, subsidiaries, branches, etc.—even typos—and correlates the right information to the right business entity.

Executive/Business Associate: Even find similar-sounding last names and first nicknames automatically. Find connections among business people who don't share public records.

FEIN Number: You only need one FEIN number to find a business's report.

Know the address but need details on who's doing business there? Enter the address, city and state. Or select the Comprehensive Location Report search form.

3. Click SEARCH.

Reviewing Search Results

In your results list, select the company name to view the comprehensive report. LexisNexis linking recognizes documents on the “same” business, no matter the name variations, similar names, different locations, subsidiaries, etc. Then it correlates the information to the right business entity. Duplicate documents are extracted to reduce errors and increase accuracy. Plus, in your results list:

- See business locations across the nation—even subsidiary addresses—and associated phone numbers right on the results screen.
- Launch another search—right from the results screen. Results screens include links. Click to run additional searches, e.g.:
 - Address—and you have several options:
 - Run a Comprehensive Location Report on the address and find other individuals and businesses associated with that address
 - Find nearby businesses and individuals
 - Telephone number—locate other individuals and businesses associated with that telephone number

Viewing Features

- Navigate Comprehensive Reports easily. Open the Comprehensive Business report and discover a left-hand navigation bar. See source types found—and how many documents for each. Click and go to any type. The navigation bar stays in place so you never lose yours.
- Check source documents. Link from the comprehensive report to the original source documents. Or click the Sources category from the left navigation bar. Even print or download* source documents.
- Move to other reports—in one step. Link directly to other comprehensive reports on the people and business associates and locations listed in your report. No additional search needed.
