Key Benefits

Alerts

- Jump on new opportunities: Be among the first to know when a prospect or client is involved in litigation. Stay aware of opportunities to offer your services or begin early case assessment.
- Prepare your cases more effectively: Monitor developments and parties relevant to your case strategy.

Tracks

- Manage your workflow: Stay on top of new filing activity. Be notified of new pleadings, filings and orders—get a jump-start on your response without waiting to get back to the office.
- Monitor your practice area: Stay aware of important filings in your jurisdiction—you'll be better able to both predict the likely outcome of your case and draft your pleadings and motions accordingly.
- Provide better client service: Keep clients better informed about case progress and strategy and stay knowledgeable about litigation involving the client's industry or competitors.
