

Full-text features:

Introducing LexisNexis® Digital Library ... 12:19

Need more information on how LexisNexis eBooks work? ... 12:20

Find summaries and/or links to full-text PDFs of:

LexisNexis® Public Records sources help you get email and social site background on individuals ... 12:18

Upcoming AIA ratchets up need for speed and quality; Here's how LexisNexis IP solutions can help ... 12:18

Law school ASPIRE program offers no-cost lexis.com® use for students in public interest work ... 12:18

Perform more effective searches in LexisNexis "negative news" sources ... 12:18

Download Lexis® for Microsoft® Office literature ... 12:18

New Webinar! Learn how Lexis Advance™ can transform the way you conduct legal research ... 12:18

Spend less time and money managing traditional print books!

New LexisNexis® Digital Library provides access to one of the largest collections of authoritative legal eBook content

In the age of tablets, smartphones and laptops, legal professionals need more flexible, cost-effective ways to use and share legal reference materials. Together with OverDrive®, the leading global distributor of eBooks and other digital content to libraries and schools, LexisNexis has created a customized eBook lending and management service for your firm or organization.

LexisNexis® Digital Library gives you access to the largest collection of authoritative legal eBook content on a variety of major mobile devices and desktop platforms. Your firm or organization can:

- share eBook titles among multiple users,
- purchase eBooks centrally, and
- manage your library more efficiently

It means you can significantly reduce the costs associated with storing, filing and distributing traditional print books.

Instead of individually purchasing and managing eBook titles, you get a website created by OverDrive that is customized for your firm or organization. Via your site, the librarian or designated administrator can order titles, supervise lending and generate detailed reports that enhance your understanding of usage patterns, and facilitate more informed digital content decisions.

Your team members can access, check out and return titles via the primary website, a mobile-optimized version of the site, or a downloadable mobile app. And you'll be able to better understand how your library is being used with one-click reporting on title usage by practice area, date range and more.

Get more details—links to the website, videos, samples and more—inside on page 12:19.

Included with this issue of LexisNexis® Information Professional Update:

Link to freestanding article PDFs—with more search examples and more helpful screen shots. Check it out and tell the editor what you think at barbara.byrd@lexisnexis.com

LexisNexis® Public Records sources help you get email and social site background on individuals

In today's world, people often leave "footprints" in more than one state, and clients are requiring law firms to perform faster and more thorough research. Turn to LexisNexis Public Records resources to track down individuals' email addresses and virtual identity and Web presence. Read more at <http://law.lexis.com/infopro/Keeping-Current/LexisNexis-Information-Professional-Update-Newsletter/archive5-2012>.

Upcoming AIA ratchets up need for speed and quality; Here's how LexisNexis IP solutions can help ...

The Leahy-Smith America Invents Act of 2011 (AIA)—with its "first-to-file" system, post-grant opposition and inter partes review—goes into effect this fall. And that means patent attorneys must file to the USPTO faster and be even more thorough with patent applications. Are you and your patent researchers ready? Get the help you need at <http://law.lexis.com/infopro/Keeping-Current/LexisNexis-Information-Professional-Update-Newsletter/archive5-2012>.

Law school ASPIRE program offers no-cost lexis.com® use for students in public interest work

The LexisNexis® ASPIRE program provides students working in 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations this summer with no-cost access to the LexisNexis services. Students can apply for ASPIRE access now, or anytime throughout the summer. For eligible graduating 3L students, ASPIRE access extends into next year. Eligible students can go to the Registration Form, sign on, then complete the form. ASPIRE IDs provide no-cost access to federal and state cases, codes, regulations, law reviews, Shepard's® Citations Service and Matthew Bender® treatises. Learn more about the ASPIRE program.

Perform more effective searches in LexisNexis "negative news" sources

During challenging economic times, you need to monitor news about companies and clients who may be struggling. So don't forget to check the negative news files available via lexis.com®. Find out how you can unearth vital negative information without complicated searches at <http://law.lexis.com/infopro/Keeping-Current/LexisNexis-Information-Professional-Update-Newsletter/archive5-2012>.

New Webinar! Learn how Lexis Advance™ can transform the way you conduct legal research

A free 30-minute Webinar is now available on demand to help you and your practitioners get the most from Lexis Advance. See how the Lexis Advance service can help you get the right answer sets faster and more easily; sift through relevant content with pre-search and post-search filters; and improve your efficiency with exclusive tools like the My Workspace carousel, the Legal Issue Trail™ feature and Research Map. View now; download for later. Also at <http://law.lexisnexis.com/webcasting/> (Click the Events OnDemand tab).

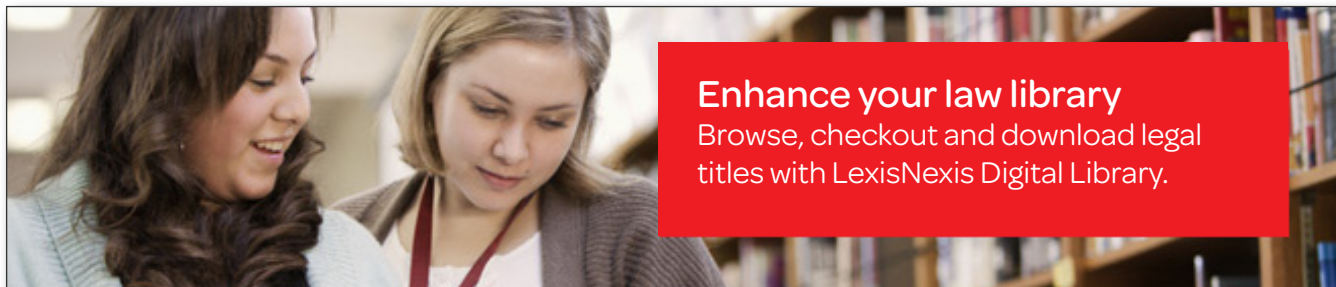

Download Lexis® for Microsoft® Office literature

Learn more about the innovative research tools Lexis for Microsoft Office available directly within your documents and emails. Get a quick overview of the functionality within your Lexis for Microsoft Office ribbon. For example, see how to access Shepard's Signal™ indicators and identify additional authority on-point for all cited cases in your document. Review your options for simplifying compliance with citation manuals and expediting the creation of a table of authorities. You can gain access to this product brochure at <http://www.lexisnexis.com/newlexis/docs/lexis-for-microsoft-office-product-brochure.pdf>.

Be an e-subscriber!

Get LexisNexis® Information Professional Update delivered to your inbox. Link to article PDFs—and share the information—easily. Search text archives. No username or password needed. To request electronic delivery, go to <http://law.lexisnexis.com/infopro/register.aspx?return=>.

Introducing LexisNexis® Digital Library ...

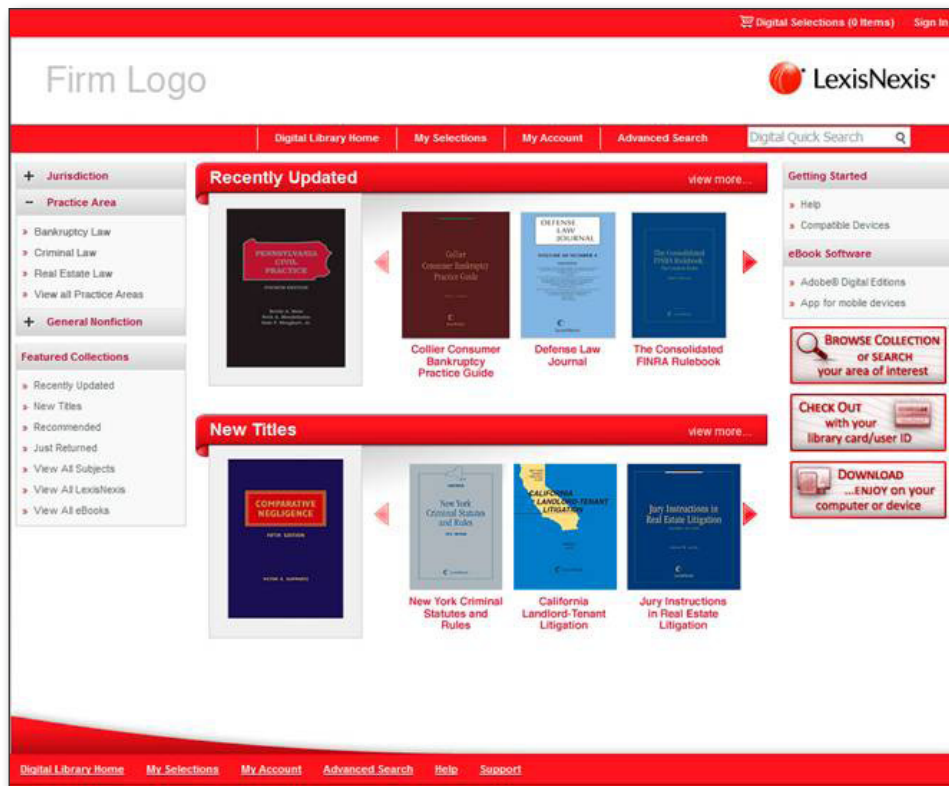

Open the doors to your law library 24/7 with mobile access to primary law, deskbooks, code books, treatises and more.

LexisNexis® Digital Library introduces a new chapter in library lending and the services you can extend to your organization.

LexisNexis has joined forces with OverDrive®, the digital library solutions provider, to bring you LexisNexis Digital Library. OverDrive has proven its system in more than 18,000 libraries worldwide, and its large, diverse catalog of eBook titles will complement the LexisNexis collection of electronic legal titles.

LexisNexis Digital Library customers will also have access to and be able to purchase more than 700,000 other titles—on subjects from business and technology to travel and language learning—via the OverDrive Content Reserve collection portal.

Additionally, because the new LexisNexis Digital Library is publisher agnostic, you can also add titles from other publishers available via OverDrive and centrally manage them—eliminating the inefficiency of using multiple platforms or sites to manage an entire collection.

LexisNexis Digital Library is now available to select pilot customers. Look for broad availability to law libraries this summer.

LexisNexis® eBooks are compatible with a wide variety of major devices, including Windows® PC, Mac®, iPod®, iPhone®, iPad®, Sony® Reader, NOOK™, Android™, BlackBerry® and Windows® Phone.

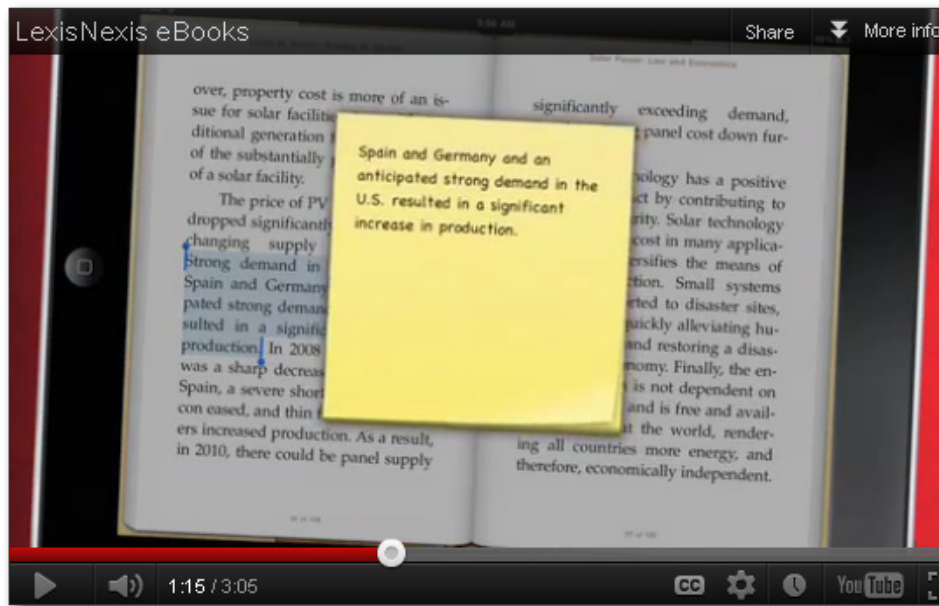

Get more details on LexisNexis Digital Library

Visit the microsite at www.lexisnexis.com/ebooks/lending

And ask your LexisNexis Librarian Relations Consultant or your LexisNexis account representative.

Need more information on how LexisNexis® eBooks work?

The LexisNexis Digital Library site also offers a short eBook demo. Just click the eBook Demo tab.

Download an eBook sample ...

Visit www.lexisnexis.com/ebooks and click the Download a Sample tab to choose from more than 15 sample LexisNexis eBooks, including:

- Best Practices for Government Libraries
- Modern Federal Jury Instructions
- Family Law and Practice
- Tax Planning for S Corporations and more!

Review and search the list of available LexisNexis eBook titles

Search by jurisdiction, or practice area. Even download a complete list of LexisNexis eBook titles. Go to the Available Titles tab.

 Download LexisNexis® Mobile Apps at www.lexisnexis.com/mobile

LexisNexis, Lexis, Shepard's, lexis.com and the Knowledge Burst logo are registered trademarks, and Lexis Advance and Legal Issue Trail are trademarks of Reed Elsevier Properties Inc., used under license. Matthew Bender is a registered trademark of Matthew Bender Properties Inc. OverDrive is a registered trademark of OverDrive, Inc. Microsoft and Windows are registered trademarks of Microsoft Corporation. Other products or services may be trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective companies. © 2012 LexisNexis. All Rights Reserved. LB2012-5 0512

LexisNexis® Information Professional Update

Newsletter editions are also available electronically at <http://law.lexisnexis.com/infopro>

LexisNexis Information Professional Update is a monthly newsletter (November/December issues combined) for law-firm, law-school, corporate and government information professionals published by LexisNexis, P.O. Box 933, Dayton, OH 45401-0933.

Managing Editor

Barbara M. Byrd
barbara.byrd@lexisnexis.com