

New Sources on the Nexis® Service

We are continually investing in our content offerings to make sure we have the information you need to be ready and prepared for whatever lies ahead. This year alone, we've added 200 new sources to the Nexis® service, including many unique, niche sources for specific research needs.* Here are a few of those sources:

WealthEngine®

Provides intelligence solutions to help fundraising, marketing and business development professionals create strategies to extend their reach and build their prospect pipeline. WealthEngine works with nonprofits, hospitals, institutions of higher education, political campaigns, advocacy groups, luxury organizations and financial services firms to help identify individuals with the net worth, income, lifestyle and affinity to become donors or customers. Serving clients in the United States, it offers solutions across four key areas: analytics, research, prospecting and consulting.

GMI Ratings

Is an independent provider of research and ratings on environmental, social, governance and accounting risks affecting the performance of public companies. The firm's ESG ratings for nearly 6,500 companies worldwide incorporate 120 ESG KeyMetrics™ to help investors assess the sustainable investment value of corporations. Governance Holdings Co., also provides Accounting and Governance Ratings (AGR®) for approximately 20,000 public companies worldwide. AGR metrics validate the accuracy and reliability of a company's financial reporting.

LEAD digital

Is a biweekly magazine for digital and online marketing professionals. LEAD digital provides insider information from the digital industry and supplies background information regarding topics like mobile, social media, SEM/SEO, online marketing and e-commerce. This special-issue magazine is useful for the businesses in the advertising industry, for agencies and media.

News Bites—Private Companies

Comprises a daily collection of corporate announcements and press releases only from private companies. Articles include the original announcement, together with any additional background information on the company, including a company description, financials and key management. Coverage is of U.S. and European private companies with regional expansion scheduled.

The Atlantic Cities

Explores the most innovative ideas and pressing issues facing today's global cities and neighborhoods. By bringing together news, analysis, data and trends, the site is an engaging destination for an increasingly urbanized world.

Clinical Trials

Provides information on clinical studies of diseases and conditions by Federal Information & News Dispatch, Inc. It provides access to patients, their family members, health care professionals, researchers and the public. Both privately and publicly supported studies are included.
