

Here's what you need to know about Lexis Advance® pricing

Lexis Advance® offers straightforward pricing that you can understand fully—and act on without being concerned about mistakes.

That's important if:

You're a new associate, because you want to do your best work and show you're a good hire, without worrying that you might be incurring research charges without even knowing it.

You're a legal research & writing instructor, because you don't have the time or resources to stay up to date on every vendor's pricing. But you want your students to be effective researchers and "practice ready."

1

No search charges or hourly charges ... no meter is running

Search across sources. Open any subscription document. Subscriptions also include these features at no additional charge:

- Filtering search results
- Shepard's® reports and viewing in-plan citing references
- All document delivery options, e.g., print
- All alert set-up, delivery and review of in-plan documents

Research documents are recorded for cost recovery only

All documents accessed in a law firm setting are recorded for the LexisNexis® invoice to help an organization prorate their monthly subscription fee, if desired.

2

No accidental charges

What about non-subscription documents in your search results? To incur added charges, you must take active steps to open the out-of-plan documents:

- All out-of-plan documents are clearly labeled on the results screen
- Not sure you want to purchase? Save an out-of-plan document without opening it—again, no charge
  - If you opt to purchase an out-of-plan document, the Get It Now charge covers:
    - Accessed ($) - available until Jan 27, 2015 All access for 90 days, plus access to original source PDFs with the document
    - Accessed ($) - available until Oct 30, 2015 All Folder access for one year, that is, you save the document to a Folder and access that document from the Folder
    - All Shepard's reports for that document as well as all delivery, e.g., email, for the document

Lexis Advance® Pricing

It's straightforward and simple. There are no search charges ... no hourly charges ... no meter running. If the document you need is in your subscription, use it, save it, send it and analyze it. It's covered. You can even search out-of-plan sources and incur no cost until you open a relevant document. Here's a Lexis Advance subscription pricing overview:

NO EXTRA CHARGE

(Part of your Lexis Advance subscription ... unlimited use, every day)
