YOUR FEEDBACK MAPS OUR DNA

So we keep making Lexis Advance® better for you.

When you share your ideas with LexisNexis®, they mark our roadmap to the future. They become today's latest features—making documents more flexible, adding more power to your search, enriching our content and much more. Here is what's new at the Lexis Advance® service to make your research experience better and faster so you can concentrate on finding the best solutions.

Added Document Flexibility

You're not just searching for documents; you're selecting vital authority. We've added even more exceptional in-document search, navigation and validation tools to get you there faster.

Search within documents. Mine full-text documents more quickly to extract those vital nuggets you need to fuel your matter. Enter terms, phrases and connectors in a clear, expandable in-document search box ...

The screenshot displays the Lexis Advance Research interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Lexis Advance® Research', a search bar, and various filters. The main content area shows the document 'Harris v. Urell, 133 Wn. App. 130'. Below the title, there's a 'Copy Citation' button and the court information: 'Court of Appeals of Washington, Division Two', 'May 23, 2006, Filed', and 'No. 33592-1-II'. The 'Reporter' section lists '133 Wn. App. 130 | 135 P.3d 530 | 2006 Wash. App. LEXIS 1056'. The 'Notice' section states 'PUBLISHED IN PART'. The 'Subsequent History' section mentions 'Review denied by Harris v. Urell, 2007 Wash. LEXIS 435 (Wash., June 5, 2007)'. The 'Core Terms' section is at the bottom. On the right side, there's a 'Shepard's®' section with 'No negative subsequent appellate history', 'Citing Decisions (22)' (including Caution, Positive, and Neutral), and 'Cited By (13)'. Below that is 'Other Citing Sources (33)' and a 'Shepardize® this document' button. At the bottom right, there's an 'About This Document' section with 'Original Source Image', 'Related Court Materials', 'Briefs (3)', and 'Legal Issue Trail™ | Tips'.

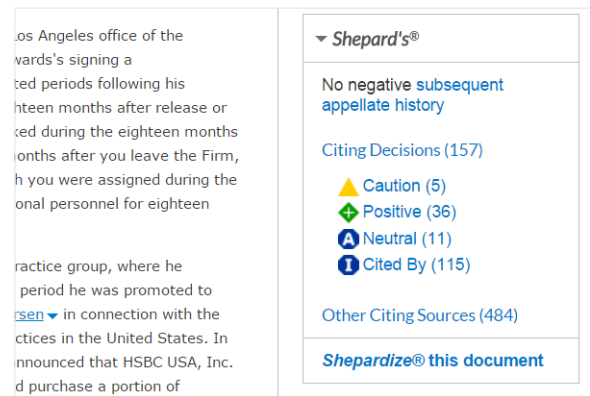

then navigate easily to any or all of your term and phrase hits.

Even more ways to move through a document faster. Your essential document navigation tools are always in sight, never hidden as you browse. Reduce clicks and go where you need to—and back again—much faster and easier than ever. Go directly to specified document parts, page through or skip to terms in a single move.

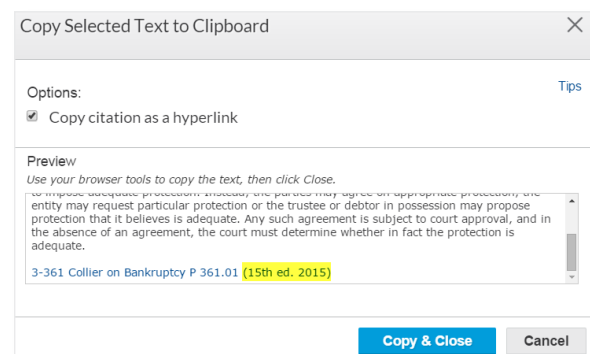

"Go to" a document section, "Page" to, and "Navigate" terms always display on the floating toolbar.

Shepard's® preview displays prominently as you scroll through your document. Always know the status of your case, validate your points and access citing authority from anywhere within your document—and return immediately to your place when you're finished, saving valuable time.

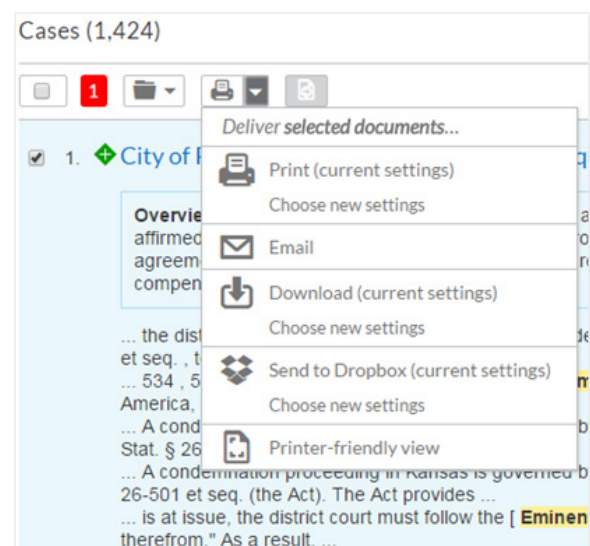

Capture publication edition when you copy text.

Publication edition and date now display automatically when you choose to copy a citation or copy selected text from a publication. Get a more complete citation in less time.

More delivery options with better performance. Now switch easily among your multiple Dropbox® accounts from within Lexis Advance to save or share documents or results to firm, personal or group accounts. You don't need to leave Lexis Advance or access Dropbox from a different window, tab or your desktop. Keep your research on track.

Stay on top of expiring alerts. Lexis Advance now displays your alert expiration dates in real time online. Keep gaps from forming in your search monitoring.

More Search Power

An intuitive and precise search tool means more relevant results, more often. We keep refining our search tools up-front and behind the scenes to give you faster, smarter searches—the tools to get the job done.
