

Lexis Advance®

DIFFERENCES THAT DELIVER FLEXIBLE SEARCH

Search what you want the way you want with the wide array of search options in Lexis Advance®. Here's how:

RED SEARCH BOX

One box does it all—just start typing. The Red Search Box recognizes citations, sources, Boolean search and natural language and whisks you to the most relevant results. You can even Shepardize® citations in the Red Search Box with one click. Plus get suggestions for legal phrases and concepts for your search, as well as valid citations and names for thousands of cases and popular statutes, as you type. It's like having an exclusive legal dictionary at your fingertips.

EXPLORE CONTENT

Look no further than Explore Content to begin searching your way. See the realm of source selection possibilities up front on your Lexis Advance® home page. Explore Content offers a source hierarchy organized by content type, by federal or state jurisdiction or by practice area. Lexis Advance even directs you to guided Advanced Search forms for more accurate searching. Choose, search and review results for just the sources or source groups you want, right away.

ADVANCED SEARCH FORMS

Interactive Advanced Search forms guide and prompt you to relevant, targeted results, fast. Choose from over 50 Advanced Search forms tailored to a specific source or document type, each offering numerous document segments to search individually or in combination. Enter search terms in segments, and Advanced Search builds your query on the fly. Search smarter with Advanced Search.

Comprehensive and consistent: the power of Lexis Advance® search

What makes Lexis Advance searching different? You mine our vast collection including news, dockets, the open Web and your organization's internal library with one search. And your natural-language search results are consistent—whether you apply filters to your search before or after you click Search, you'll get the same results.

PRE- & POST-SEARCH FILTERS

Refine your research before and after you search with the most extensive list of pre- and post-search filters anywhere. Target your search to any number of jurisdictions, content categories and/or practice areas. Or search all Lexis Advance content and narrow your results by selecting documents from specific sources, jurisdictions and time frames, with specific key words and more. Add and remove these filters in any order, as many as you want, and even search within your results set.

BROWSE

Finding the source or topic you want can be as easy as browsing directly to it. Select a legal topic and review more relevant resources that help you understand every facet. Go directly to cases; statutes; briefs, pleadings and motions; treatises; even legal news; and more. View sources, even with a partial source title, and easily select what you need. View an alphabetical list of all available sources, or filter by category type (e.g., forms), jurisdiction, practice area or publisher.

LEXIS ADVANCE PRACTICE PAGES

Get top sources for specific jurisdictions and practice areas all on one page. Lexis Advance Practice Pages expertly combine on-point statutes, cases, the most noted authorities and trusted news you can't find anywhere else with exclusive tools to help you develop better practice insights. Make a Practice Page your start page and begin your research even faster.

LEXIS® WEB

Search the Web as you search Lexis Advance with the same natural language, but without irrelevant non-legal Web clutter. Exclusive Lexis Web searches only sites vetted by LexisNexis® attorney editors. Save searches and lots of time culling out questionable websites.
