Fact 1

PRACTICAL GUIDANCE FROM PRACTICING ATTORNEYS & OUR PRACTICE AREA TEAM

Only the Lexis Practice Advisor® service offers practical guidance from a large, diverse pool of practicing attorneys as well as our own practice area specialists. These include over 500+ leading attorneys currently practicing both at firms and in-house, as well as our staff of attorney authors. To learn more about our contributing authors and to read their bios go to: www.lexisnexis.com/practice-advisor-authors.

TASK-BASED APPROACH

Everything you need to complete your transaction from start to finish is easily accessible and organized to mirror the steps you take to accomplish your work. This task-based approach allows you to quickly find everything from Practice Notes about your specific matter to relevant annotated forms, cases, articles, statutes and legislation to increase your efficiency and effectiveness.

ACCESS FROM LEXIS® FOR MICROSOFT OFFICE®

You can work seamlessly without leaving Word or Outlook® by accessing Lexis Practice Advisor from the Lexis® for Microsoft Office® drafting & review toolbar (available with separate subscription). Access on-point practical guidance from within your document or email exactly when you need it most to enhance your efficiency even further.

ON-POINT, ANNOTATED FORMS

Increase your drafting efficiency with access to annotated forms on point to your topic. You'll find drafting guidance and suggested alternate clauses to make completing your legal work easier.
