

UNCOVER PIVOTAL CITING PASSAGES FASTER: NEW REASON FOR SHEPARD'S SIGNAL™ FEATURE

Distinctive and familiar Shepard's Signal™ indicators help you quickly understand the impact of subsequent cases on your issue. And now you can find and review the most important citing passages even faster. The exclusive Reason for *Shepard's Signal feature now displays in full-text Lexis Advance® cases dated after March 2003 in all available jurisdictions.

HERE'S HOW THE REASON FOR SHEPARD'S SIGNAL DISPLAY HELPS YOU GAIN RELEVANT INSIGHT FASTER:

- A. Review the top citing passage for your case's treatment—no added charge! Just click the Reason for Shepard's Signal™? link in a full-text case. Without leaving the case, a new window displays showing the citing passage that had the strongest influence on the *Shepard's Signal analysis. You'll quickly know why the signal indicator was assigned. (Click the X in the top-right corner to close this window.)
- B. Review the top citing passage in context. Place your cursor on the top passage; the text turns red. Click to move to that top passage in the full-text citing case, highlighted for quick review. To exit the citing case, click your ← back browser button in the top-left corner of the screen.
- C. Move to your cited case's headnotes—either the headnote cited or all case headnotes.
- D. Review other citing cases that contributed to the Shepard's Signal indicator for your case.
- E. Get more details on top citing passages, as well as reference materials and other research tips for the Shepard's® Citations Service, through online Help screens.

The screenshot displays the Lexis Advance Research interface for the case Ledbetter v. Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., 550 U.S. 618. The document title is visible at the top. A sidebar on the right contains the 'Reason for Shepard's Signal' feature, which includes a link to 'View the top citing passage' and a list of citing decisions with their respective signal indicators (Warning, Questioned, Caution, Positive, Neutral, Cited By). A pop-up window titled 'Reason for Shepard's Signal' is open, showing the top citing passage: 'Warning (1 of 83) - Top passage (View all 83)'. The passage text is highlighted in red. The pop-up also shows the headnotes cited (HN3) and a link to 'Jump to headnote section of this case'. The main document text shows the top of the opinion, including the date (2007) and the court (U.S. Supreme Court).

More New Shepard's® Enhancements

Your Shepard's report results are now even easier to review so you can quickly pinpoint the insights you need.

- Filter results to view just reported or unreported citing cases, or filter to view Briefs, Pleadings and Motions.
- Use the Search Within Results box to search within segments (document parts), e.g., ENTER: opinionby(ginsburg).
- Download Shepard's® BriefCheck™ reports into Microsoft® Excel® for easy filtering and sorting (not shown).

Shepard's®: Ledbetter v. Go

Appellate History

Citing Decisions

Other Citing Sources

Table of Authorities

Narrow By

- ▶ Analysis
- ▶ Court
- ▼ PublicationStatus
  - Unreported 536
  - Reported 257
- Select multiple
- ▶ Discussion
- ▶ Headnotes
- ▶ Timeline
- ▶ citingRefAddDate
- ▼ Search Within Results

opinionsby(ginsburg) 🔍

See more new Lexis Advance features

LEXISNEXIS.COM/EN-US/SUPPORT/LEXIS-ADVANCE/NEW-ENHANCEMENTS.PAGE

Talk to a LexisNexis® Customer Support representative—live support virtually 24/7

800.543.6862

Sign in

LEXISADVANCE.COM

Learn more

LEXISNEXIS.COM/ADVANCE