

Time is of the essence.

Be the first to know updated debtor information and take prompt action to resume collections efforts.

Getting the right information at the right time to the right people is a key part of efficient, effective collections within the fast-changing debtor environment. But repeatedly submitting accounts with the hope of keeping up with debtors is a time-consuming task that can impede your workflow and your bottom line. Keep up with the:

- 35% of debtors who move annually
- 50% of debtors who need skip tracing annually

Timely updates, delivered faster

LexisNexis® Account Monitoring eases this burden by regularly alerting your collectors when new contact, locate and segmentation data is available, using an automated batch process that easily integrates within your existing workflow. These updates help you avoid repetitive and costly online and batch searches and accelerate the collections process.

Exceptional process flexibility and customization—a robust advantage only available through LexisNexis®—allow you to configure the attributes and select “all updates” or only receive updates to specific data, based on your specific needs and workflow. Best of all, LexisNexis Account Monitoring leverages proven, industry-leading LexisNexis public records data sets to ensure you receive the most detailed, relevant information.

Contact debtors faster

Regular, electronic updates boost your Right Party Contacts (RPCs) to help you quickly contact debtors, ultimately enhancing your collection rates.

Customize your process

Flexible options enable you to choose only the solutions you need, with updates on your schedule.

Account Monitoring Scenario

Automated updates provide timely skip tracing information to increase contact rates and maximize collections.

Minimize costs

To deliver the most value for your money, all alerts are the same price as hits on your initial batch.

Access expansive, industry-leading data

The LexisNexis Account Monitoring Data Library is the largest in the industry, offering you detailed, updated information pertaining to:

- Phone data
- Address data
- Bankruptcy data
- Property data
- Criminal data
- Judgment and lien data
