

LexisNexis® Unclaimed Property Batch Services

A complete solution for the lawful return of unclaimed property

LexisNexis® understands that when state agencies need to return unclaimed property, accurate and actionable information in a timely and cost-effective manner is critical to success. So we've combined two commercially proven data products, Person Locator and InstantID®, into a single powerful solution called Unclaimed Property

Batch Services. Whether you're proactively identifying and locating rightful owners or verifying the validity of an incoming claim, this user-friendly solution is designed to help you to make policy decisions more efficiently and effectively than ever before.

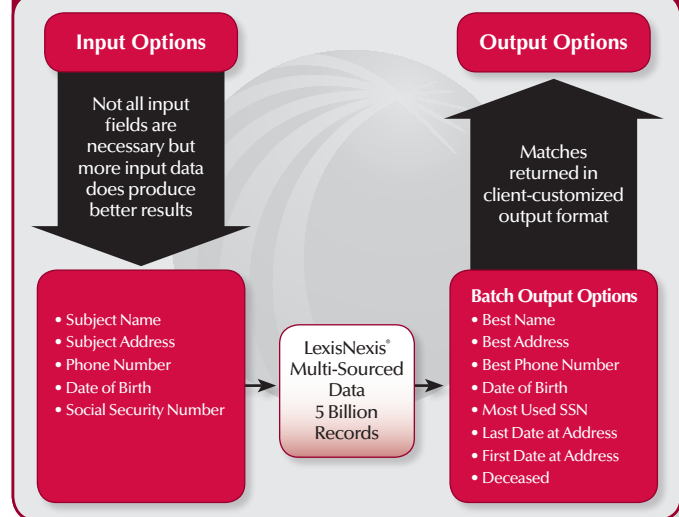

Acquire updated, current contact information

Unclaimed Property Batch Services includes Person Locator—the ideal data tool for proactively seeking the rightful owners of property. Person Locator utilizes over 100,000 rule sets for address hygiene, name matching and the identification of mis-keyed data and other anomalies, to generate data that is current, policy compliant and immediately useful to you. Person Locator minimizes exception rates and false positives, and maximizes the effectiveness and value of your batch results.

Verify and score large-volume data batches more efficiently

With Unclaimed Property Batch Services you have access to the speed and power of InstantID, the industry-leading identity verification solution. This is the ideal tool for quickly verifying claimants identities and validating that they are the rightful owners of the property in question. InstantID can now be delivered in batch to better accommodate large volumes of data.

Four easy steps to more efficient decision making

Trust our industry leading data security

LexisNexis® is a trusted industry leader in data security and privacy providing comprehensive, authoritative and reliable information for effective decision making. When you work with LexisNexis, you can rest assured that your data is secure and is never shared.

Access comprehensive data

When it comes to choosing data sources, accuracy and recency are critical. LexisNexis Unclaimed Property Batch Services draws from over 10,000 sources of public records to maintain a master identity repository that contains over 400 million unique domestic identities. That means when you're doing your job, you can leverage one of the largest collections of identifying information in the U.S. and greatly increase your chances of finding the correct individuals.

Save time and reduce effort

You need accurate information fast. For state agencies, our standard turnaround time for practically any size batch is approximately 24 hours. For requests of 5,000 records or less, turnaround times are usually between one and two hours. Faster turnaround times from us translate into increased productivity for you and your staff.

Count on superior customer service

LexisNexis is also fervently committed to providing prompt, friendly and useful customer service. Our experienced Batch Consultants can answer questions and offer suggestions on how to get the most out of your data files.
