

LexisNexis® CourtLink® STRATEGIC PROFILES

Use LexisNexis® CourtLink® Strategic Profiles to help you argue your cases more effectively and grow your business.

CourtLink® searches the most in-depth historical federal civil online database of court records covering 10 to 20 years of cases, then pinpoints relevant information and delivers a Strategic Profile with easy-to-read graphs, data charts, and facts that allow you to quickly identify trends, opportunities, and risk.

CourtLink offers 5 types of Strategic Profiles:

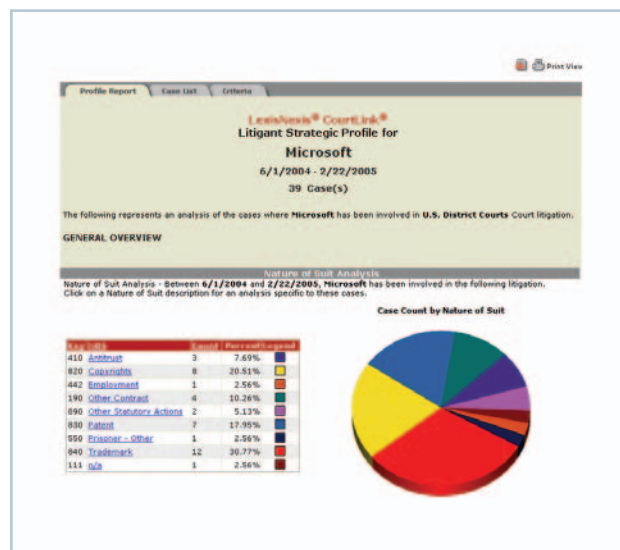

- Litigant
- Attorney/Law Firm
- Judicial
- Court
- Nature of Suit

Rerunning Your Strategic Profile with Different Dates

You may want to rerun Litigant Strategic Profiles with different date ranges to gauge how a company's litigation needs have changed over time and access trends. Rerun any of the five types of Strategic Profiles for different time periods for no additional charge up to 24 hours after you have run your initial profile by following the directions below:

- Click on the Strategic Profile tab to display a history of past profile searches.
- Click Rerun next to the name of the profile you want to change.
- Once the profile displays, edit the date range and click Rerun Profile.

Looking Up Corporate Affiliations, Subsidiaries & Divisions

Due to the fact that company names may be entered by court clerks in a variety of ways, it may be difficult to identify all litigation involving a company. Only enter the key components of a company name and/or any other known variations when searching. If you are interested in researching affiliates, subsidiaries, and divisions worldwide and including those in your search criteria:

- From the Strategic Profile tab, click the Litigant tab.
- Under Search Company Subsidiaries at the bottom of the tab, click the here link.
- Enter a company name; click Search.
