

New Exclusive Alliance in the Law Firm Market

One “Powerful Personalization” Tool for Daily Updates ... One Huge Reason to Celebrate!

Imagine ONE daily e-mail consolidating each attorney's numerous alerts and updates ... and ONE, easy-to-use administration tool for managing hundreds of distribution lists throughout the firm. That's ONE HUGE reason to celebrate!

New LexisNexis® Research Total Alerts powered by Ozmosys® can deliver a streamlined, daily e-mail update or intranet/portal entry that fuses the best information from an attorney's favorite sources. LexisNexis® CourtLink® Alerts and Tracks. LexisNexis® Publisher updates. LexisNexis® Mealey™ alerts. And it doesn't stop there! Choose content from more than 2,000 Web alert offerings. For example:

- WSJ.com Alerts—Subscribing firms can feed The Wall Street Journal Online updates through LexisNexis Total Alerts powered by Ozmosys. No problem!
- Alerts from hundreds of premium information providers such as Institutional Investor and BNA®. Includes updates from international central banks or the Federal Reserve Board.
- Government and public Web sites—Not just the Fed, but SEC, FTC and DOJ regulatory sites and many others. Even add international regulatory sites or stock exchange events and memos.
- Client Web sites—Get new disclosures as clients release them.
- RSS feeds, blogs, Internet updates—including Google™, Yahoo®, news RSS feeds and more.

Each user opens a personalized e-mail, clicks on headlines of interest—and is authenticated directly into the full-text sources. No multiple log-ons to remember. Get daily morning updates and evenings wrap-ups. And click to update any selected topic—any time during the day. Your daily e-mail even lets you know when there's no news on your topic. Another click takes you directly to a monthly topic archive ... valuable information, compiled, copyright compliant and ready to use.

And so much easier to administer. With LexisNexis Research Total Alerts powered by Ozmosys, law firms can manage and distribute highly relevant alerts based on each attorney's practice, clients and information needs. Distribution is centralized through an easy-to-use tool that lets an administrator forward hundreds of subscriptions to hundreds of internal users in a fraction of the time. Create group alerts by topic, practice area, client teams, etc. Readers may subscribe and unsubscribe.

Here's more good news. Your organization still controls the subscription process with third-party sources. The team from LexisNexis Research Total Alerts powered by Ozmosys acts as your technical intermediary only.
