

Now you can:

Profile the judge or arbitrator handling your case. Review biographical information, opinions in previous cases, authored law review articles, and more to learn of his ...

- experiences/expertise in a particular area of law,
- interactions (via other cases) with opposing counsel,
- biases,
- tendencies, such as citing unpublished opinions,

in order to help prepare your strategy and better advise your client about what to expect.

Learn as much as possible about opposing counsel or counsel you wish to hire ...

- whether she has expertise in this area of law,
  - how often she has appeared before this judge,
  - whether she settles most of her cases or wins them on motions or takes them to trial,
- to help you better understand your opponent or make the best choice in selecting local counsel.

Get information about opposing counsel's expert or an expert you wish to retain ...

- uncover potential skeletons in the closet,
- learn whether his testimony has ever been barred,
- learn whether he has been sanctioned,
- get indications of bias or inaccuracy in the information he/she has provided in the past,
- find inconsistencies in biographical information, etc.

Step 1
Just fill in the blanks and click Go.

Step 2

You'll see a listing of all documents retrieved, grouped by document type—cases, jury verdicts and settlements, directory entries, law review articles, Mealey publications, news articles, etc.

Step 3

Just select the documents you want by using the checkboxes and click Generate Report. You'll see something that looks like this:

Step 4

Dig even deeper into the litigants, opposing counsel and judges in your cases by accessing LexisNexis® CourtLink® Strategic Profiles right from the main page. Providing in-depth, court-records research, Strategic Profiles provide critical insight into the litigation history of all the key players involved in your litigation.

There are four ways to access LexisNexis® Analyzer:

- 1 From any of the LexisNexis Litigation Research Tasks pages, just go to the LexisNexis Analyzer task box.
- 2 Click LexisNexis Analyzer on the main source selection screen on the Legal tab.
- 3 While viewing a case, click on either the Counsel or the Judge link.
- 4 Go to www3.lexis.com/analyzer

No matter what stage of the case you're in, your critical insights grow with the LexisNexis services.

Investigation

Uncover key information about litigants, judges,
experts, and more—quickly and easily

- LexisNexis® CourtLink® Strategic Profiles
- LexisNexis® Company Analyzer
- LexisNexis® Company Dossier
- LexisNexis® SmartLinx™
- NEW! LexisNexis® Analyzer

Plus, the largest collection of news, business, and public records resources

Discovery

Cut discovery down to size

- LexisNexis® Applied Discovery®
- Time-saving sample forms and guides: Bender's Forms of Discovery,
Discovery: Mealey's Litigation Report

Authoritative practice guides and analytical materials: Civil Discovery and Depositions, Antitrust Discovery Handbook

Legal Research

Build your best case with trusted content—yours and ours

- LexisNexis® Total Research System at www.lexis.com
- LexisNexis® Total Search
- Shepard's*® Citations Service
- Matthew Bender® Publications
- LexisNexis® Case Summaries and LexisNexis® Headnotes

Current Awareness

Stay up-to-date on the issues that affect your cases, clients, and entire practice

- CourtLink® Alerts and Trackers
- Mealey's Litigation Reports
- LexisNexis Premium Trackers
- ECLIPSE™ Services

Uncover key information about litigants, judges, experts, and more ... quickly and easily

Getting information about judges, arbitrators, opposing counsel, and experts is becoming an increasingly important part of developing case strategies. To make these tasks easier, look to a new tool from LexisNexis® that compiles relevant information from a wide array of sources, including federal and state cases, jury verdicts and settlements, Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory various expert directories, law review articles, Mealey publications, thousands of news sources, public records documents, and many more.

By having all this information at your fingertips,
you can gain a strategic advantage in your cases.

Get in-depth intelligence on ...

- Judges
- Experts
- Opposing counsel
- Arbitrators

One report ... multiple sources ...
simultaneously