

LexisNexis® Company Analyzer

Revolutionize Your Due Diligence—

Get all the facts from one search of legal, news, business, financial, and public records sources

Increase the power, productivity, and effectiveness of your due diligence efforts

Due diligence is a regular requirement of practicing law, whether you're negotiating a complex transaction, sorting out the intricacies of a bankruptcy, crafting a trust agreement or handling dozens of other functions related to corporate practice. Factually accurate and easy-to-retrieve information about companies is critical to performing this work.

At the same time, company information can help you stay current on clients and prospective clients, lateral hires, and industry trends that might affect your practice.

LexisNexis® Company Analyzer is a powerful tool that will help you perform critical due diligence. LexisNexis Company Analyzer is a Web-based product that lets you search up to 36 key business, financial, legal, news and public records sources at one time. All you have to do is identify a company, specify the date range, and select from any or all of the sources.

Access Complete “Must-Have Information”

Customize your report to reflect the types of information you need. Available sources include corporate and financial information (10K, 10Q, company and industry reports, etc.), news and background stories, court decisions, jury verdicts and settlements, and pending litigation.

Spend Less Time Searching

LexisNexis Company Analyzer is designed for maximum ease of use, so you don't need complicated or precise search instructions. Just choose the categories of information you need and let LexisNexis Company Analyzer take care of the rest.

Get the Most Current Results Fast

LexisNexis Company Analyzer gives you access to the latest information available. Whether you're performing due diligence or preparing for a trial, you'll find the current, accurate information you need.

Quick Reference

1. Open a Web browser and enter <http://www.lexis.com/companyanalyzer> and bookmark this site for easy reference.
2. Enter your LexisNexis ID and password and a client name to identify this session.
3. Enter a company name in the Company Name box. Tip: Avoid using terms like “Inc.” or “Corp.”
4. Choose the dates you would like to search (optional) by using the pull-down menu or by entering dates in the From and To boxes.
5. The default setting is 20 documents per source, but you can change this to any number you want, or click All to retrieve all documents for each source.

6. Choose the sources you want to search:

- Choose All lexis.com® Company Analyzer Sources to search all available sources.
- Choose Select Sources to display a list of sources that can be searched individually or combined according to your needs.
- Choose Favorite Source Set to select a set of sources you previously saved or to create a new set of favorite sources.
- Click Next to display the Summary screen.

Before running your search, you may want to click Save Selection. The source selection will then be saved for the next time you access this client.

7. The Summary screen displays the information you entered on the Start Page, as well as the sources you selected.

8. Click Search to run your search.

9. A list of documents found by your search will display. Check the boxes next to the documents you want to include in your final report and click Generate Report.
10. To display the documents you have retrieved in a format that can be printed or saved, click the Print/Save Format button. This will display the full text of the reports you have selected in another window so they can be either printed or saved. Clicking the button does not automatically save or print your results.
11. To save your results, select File from your browser toolbar and click Save As. Select the drive, directory, and file name, then click Save. This will save your results in HTML format so they can be viewed in your browser later.
12. To print your results, select File from your browser toolbar and click Print or use the function keys “Cntl+P” to display the Print dialog box. Select the printer you want to use and click OK. This will deliver the text of the documents you were viewing to the printer you have selected.
13. To return to LexisNexis Company Analyzer, return to the browser window in which LexisNexis Company Analyzer is running. You can:
 - Click the New Search button at the top of the screen to run another search.
 - Click Sign Off to exit the LexisNexis Company Analyzer service.

The screenshot displays the LexisNexis Company Analyzer web interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the LexisNexis logo, the text "LexisNexis Company Analyzer", and buttons for "New Search", "Sign Off", and "Help". A red circle with the number "10" is overlaid on the top right of the page.

The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains "Search Criteria" with the following details: Report Date: 9/4/2003, Company Name: lexisnexis, Date: All Available Dates, and Max docs per source: 20. Below this is a section for "Citations By Source" with a link to expand the list. Three expandable sections are visible: "+ Directory of Corporate Affiliations", "+ Hoover's Company Profile Database", and "+ Standard & Poor's Register of Corporations".

The right column is titled "Documents" and features a "Print/Save Format" button. The document title is "Directory of Corporate Affiliations (Document number: 5)". Below the title, there are navigation links for "Previous Step", "Hierarchy [WEBusers only]", and "Exit". The main content of the document is a copyright notice: "Copyright 2003 Reed Elsevier Inc. All rights reserved. Published by National Register Publishing.
