

How Your Firm Can Weather the Economic Storm

You work hard at practicing law. Getting paid for your work should be easy. But in this economic environment it has become increasingly challenging.

In a recent article, "Law Firms Keeping an Eye on Client IOUs," the American Lawyer reported on the additional effort required for law firms to collect fees.

More than ever, law firms like yours need billing and accounting software that can handle everything from time-billing to trust accounting to check writing to collections, and more.

PCLAW HAS A PROVEN TRACK RECORD ...

Designed specifically for law firms, PCLaw™ is the most widely used legal billing and accounting system in North America. More than 30,000 lawyers and law office administrators use it worldwide.

TechnoLawyer recently reviewed PCLaw and gave it a TechnoScore rating of 4.6 out of 5, writing:

"Overall, PCLaw worked quickly and flawlessly. The standard edition reviewed here contains a comprehensive set of tools for the solo or small firm. The almost instantaneous response to all the queries and reports I ran was a joy compared to some other programs I use daily."

With PCLaw, you can:

- * Shorten your billing cycle to improve cash flow and increase profits.
- * Expedite and automate your payroll.
- * Electronically process credit card payments.
- * Manage trust accounting and comply with your state's requirements.
- * Effectively manage your practice and keep your clients happy.
- * Much more -- try it at no charge (see below).
