

Optimize Your Contact Accuracy With

Banko[®] Batch Solutions from LexisNexis[®]

Reliable contact information is critical to your success, but manually checking large lists for the right facts can be cumbersome, expensive, and time-consuming. Whether your work involves collection/recovery, criminal investigation, account processing, prospecting, or targeted outreach, you can benefit from precise, tailored Batch Solutions by Banko, provided through the LexisNexis services.

Achieve optimal results:

- Control expenditures of time and money
- Promote accurate, timely responses
- Improve right-party contact and recovery rates
- Reduce the number of mail items sent to wrong addresses
- Enhance your in-house databases

Reduce costs and improve results

You provide a “batch” of electronic information, such as names, addresses, and telephone numbers. We create a custom search and run your list through the applicable portion of our comprehensive LexisNexis databases—containing more than 4.9 billion searchable documents—and quickly provide the accurate results you need.

You save time and labor by eliminating the need to enter individual records in a manual search. Our volume process is automated, and we tailor the output to your specifications, including the electronic format you need to upload results to your own internal databases.

Tailor your solution

Whether you’re new to LexisNexis or experienced with our services, we provide an account representative and specialists to help you create a tailored batch data solution—or choose a standard one to support your goals. We listen to your needs and help you define specific requirements. Then, we deliver automated services for optimal speed and accuracy.

Select the solution elements you need:

- Improve contact and recovery rates, reduce returned mail costs, and eliminate manual searching while you benefit from hundreds of the most credible, independent sources—from telephone databases to professional license and real estate records.
- Screen out unproductive list entries, prioritize your contact activity, reallocate resources, and limit your liability through our automated, large-volume “scrub” against the most current, comprehensive collection of public records available—more than 4.6 billion records strong.
- Prevent loss through periodic monitoring for judgments and liens.
- Target your list to make programs less costly and more successful; assess the potential worth of prospective contacts through checks on ownership of major items such as real property, motor vehicles, watercraft, and aircraft.
- Customize volume services using any of the expansive LexisNexis news, business, and financial sources to meet your unique requirements.
