

Uncover key information about judges, attorneys, expert witnesses, arbitrators and companies ... quickly and easily with

LexisNexis® Analyzer

When you need critical information about people or companies, LexisNexis Analyzer provides a comprehensive and easy-to-use solution. Simply click one of the tabs, identify a person or company, specify the date range and select any or all of the sources.

LexisNexis Analyzer lets you retrieve relevant information from a wide array of sources, depending on the company or type of person you are evaluating. For example, a search on a judge will retrieve information from cases, the Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory, the Judicial Staff Directory, jury verdicts and more. Analyzer then compiles the search results into a single customized report that can be easily downloaded or printed.

Follow these steps to find detailed information on individuals or companies:

Step 1

Select the Analyzer link in the Reference section of the Legal tab or on any of the Litigation Research Tasks pages and then click the tab for the type of information you want ... Judge, Attorney, Expert, Arbitrator, or Company

Step 2

Type the name of the person or company in the Name box(es). Select date restrictions and the maximum number of documents you want from each source. Click on each individual source through which you want the search to run.

Step 3

If you want to save the set of sources you selected, type a name for the set. Click Save and then click Next.

Step 4

Review the Summary of Search Criteria screen. If you are satisfied, click Search. Click Edit Search if you want to change your criteria.
