Save critical time as you analyze the legal issues important to you

When you find a case of interest and drill down to a particular legal issue, use the Legal Issue Trail feature to find additional cases that have similar passages—cases you may not have found through a traditional search method. This helps you navigate all the cases discussing your issue and identify those most clearly on the point of law that has the greatest relevance to you.

Let’s see how this works

Once you have done your Lexis Advance® search and found a case of interest and the point of law relevant to your search, you can click the Activate Passages button to highlight the passages within the case.

Click on an activated passage (signified by a icon and boxed by dashed purple lines) to review the specific issue you want to know more about.

Clicking on one of the activated passages will return the following results:

• Additional cases that cite to your case for the legal issue in the passage you selected
• Supporting cases your case cites that support the selected passage

Legal Issue Trail allows you to efficiently analyze how an issue has evolved over time by quickly finding all the connections between cases.

How does Legal Issue Trail find these relevant connections?

Legal Issue Trail uses proprietary Lexis Advance search capabilities to validate cases displayed that have a citing relationship and include extremely relevant passages to your original point of interest. This tool will help transform the way you conduct legal research.

Best of all, there’s no additional charge to use this technology; only normal document access charges apply as you open cases on the list.

Find related cases that feature similar passages—cases you may not easily find any other way.
