One More Way to Connect to Practical Guidance

THE LEXIS® FOR MICROSOFT OFFICE® DRAFTING & REVIEW TOOLBAR

The steps you take in your work flow seamlessly together when you use the Lexis for Microsoft Office toolbar integrated with Lexis Practice Advisor. You gain access to on-point practical guidance where you need it most—from the Microsoft® Word document or Outlook® email you're working on.

In addition, you can find forms or deal information with Lexis® Market Tracker from within your document. These are part of a wide range of drafting, review and research tools available from one toolbar that enhances your ability to work with efficiency and confidence.

- (A) To find on-point guidance and resources from Lexis Practice Advisor, highlight a term of interest in your Word document (or email) and click the Practice Advisor icon.
- (B) To access relevant annotated forms, highlight a term of interest and click the Forms icon.
- (C) To find and correct common mistakes, such as unpaired quotation marks or parentheses, click the Accuracy icon.
- (D) To validate defined terms and check references to documents and legislation, click the Terms & Phrases icon.
- (E) To convert PDFs to Word documents in seconds, click the Import icon.
- (F) Review results for “performance-based compensation” in the right pane.
