Direct Access and Sign In

To use Practical Guidance, go to lexis.com/practicalguidance.com and enter your user ID and Password. You also can sign in from the Practical Guidance Resource Center, which offers support, training, tips, guides, videos and more.

Or Access Practical Guidance from Lexis®

If you subscribe to both Lexis® and Practical Guidance services, access is now available from the Lexis service. Just click on Practical Guidance in the product switcher grid available in the black bar at top left.
When you access Practical Guidance from Lexis, you will see a home page similar to this. You control how you find information by choosing from five navigation options to begin your search for information.

- Practice Area
- Content Type
- Jurisdiction
- Industry
- Tools & Resources

Settings

You also have the option to set up preferences under Settings under the More pull-down menu at top right.

You can set Practical Guidance as your Start page, choose how your documents display and more.
Now Practical Guidance opens new doors to give you more control over how you navigate practice area information. Choose Practice Area to select the practice area you wish to explore.

After selecting your practice area (in this case, Corporate and M&A), you have more options to narrow your search for information by Tasks, Content Type, Jurisdiction, Industry, Tools & Resources.

Next, the browse content results screen offers browseable post-search filters. You see updated results as you select filters.
A navigation option available for each practice area is the Tasks menu. It appears on the left side of your screen after you select your practice area. Click a task to see subtasks.
Focus Results with Post-Filters

You can continue to focus your navigation after you receive results. Look for Narrow By to the left of your results for a selection of post-filters. As you select post-search filters, updates to your Results will immediately appear.
Navigate by Content Type

At the Practical Guidance home page, you can start to navigate for information by Content Type. The list of content you may select now includes Articles.

After selecting the Content Type you wish to navigate, a screen will appear that offers you the options to also filter by Practice Area and Jurisdiction.

As you browse Results, you can continue to select post-filters under Narrow By on the left side of your screen. Updated results continuously appear as you select filters.
Navigate by Jurisdiction

Practical Guidance now offers the option to navigate by Jurisdiction from the beginning of your search for information. Select the Jurisdiction tab to see the list of Jurisdictions from which you can choose.

After selecting the Jurisdiction you wish to search, you will see a screen that offers you the option to narrow your navigation further by selecting Practice Area and/or Content Type.

As you browse Results, you can select additional post-filters under Narrow By. As you select post-search filters, your results will immediately update.
Using Forms

Work efficiently with editable forms that can be downloaded and edited within programs you use every day. You can email, print or share with colleagues when you want to collaborate on a draft.

Under About This Document, you can click Quick Download to have the form delivered to you.

Learn the credentials of the attorney author(s) of the form under About the Author; view all Drafting Notes as one document.

Save forms to a folder. Open from the folder, download and share with colleagues.

Print, email, download or send documents to Dropbox®.

Jump to helpful Related Content on your topic.
Using Forms Continued—Drafting Notes

Get vital insights as you draft. Each drafting note provides you with practical guidance based on the attorney author’s experience.

(c) Denominations: Registration. Certificates for the Securities shall be in such denominations ($10,000 or integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof) and registered in such names as the Representatives may request in writing at least one full business day before Closing Time. The certificates representing the Securities shall be made available for examination and packaging by the Initial Purchasers in The City of New York not later than 10:00 A.M. on the business day before the Closing Time.

Drafting Note

Drafting Note to Section 2.(c)

Factors that impact the minimum denominations include, among other things, the private placement regulations of the non-U.S. jurisdictions into which the securities will be sold.

The syndication group of the principal initial purchaser will typically furnish a one-page letter to effect this instruction.

Click to expand a “Drafting Note” for author insights relevant to the highlighted copy above it.

Alternate Clauses

Access Alternate and Optional Clauses right where you need them—embedded in the text of the form. They’re also accessible under About This Document.

Alternate Clause

Optional Section 50

50 | No Plan Assets or Prohibited Transactions.

By its acquisition of these certificates, each of the Initial Purchasers will be deemed to have represented and warranted that either (i) no portion of the assets used by such Initial Purchaser to acquire or hold these certificates constitutes the assets of an employee benefit plan that is subject to Title I of ERISA, of a plan, individual retirement account or other arrangement that is subject to section 4975 of the Code or provisions under any other laws that are similar to such provisions of ERISA or the Code or of an entity whose underlying assets are considered to include “plan assets” of any such plan, account or arrangement (within the meaning of Department of Labor regulation 29 C.F.R. § 2510.3-101) or (ii) the acquisition and holding of these certificates will not constitute or give rise to a non-exempt prohibited transaction under section 406 of ERISA or section 4975 of the Code or a violation under any applicable similar laws.

Click a blue Alternate or Optional Clause to expand it, review text and select it, if applicable.
