

Voted the best by legal and technology professionals

Readers from The National Law Journal choose Lexis for Microsoft Office as the best Table of Authorities Software for five consecutive years (see 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, and 2019 results)

Readers from Corporate Counsel AND Texas Lawyer choose Lexis for Microsoft Office as Best Table of Authorities Software Provider (see Corporate Counsel 2017 and 2018 results; Texas Lawyer 2017 and 2018 results)

Lexis for Microsoft Office won the Best Solution for Integrating Content into Workflow category (view the SIIA page).

Readers from the New York Law Journal choose Lexis for Microsoft Office as best Table of Authorities Software Provider for three consecutive years (see 2014, 2015 and 2016 results)

Readers from The Recorder choose Lexis for Microsoft Office as the best Table of Authorities Software for two consecutive years (see 2015 and 2016 results).

www.technolawyer.com

Subscribers from TL NewsWire cast their votes each year for the most interesting solutions. Lexis for Microsoft office ranked #14 in 2015 (see the full list here.)