

CASELEX

Merger control intelligence that helps get the deal through

23,000+

Merger control at your fingertips

70,000+

Unique market definitions

100,000+

Undertakings

Tired of dedicating excessive time to researching competition law authority websites for market definitions and remedies?

Caselex is a comprehensive database providing access to global merger control decisions, with summaries of market definitions and case remedies translated into English across 62 jurisdictions

More than 5000 competition lawyers from over 100 law firms and competition authorities globally have relied on Caselex to craft merger strategy with the benefit of international precedents

Drive efficiency in your workflows

Improve efficiency and increase productivity by saving 75% of research time with access to Caselex's merger control intelligence

Advise with confidence

Advise on merger strategy with the confidence that you've identified competition law regulators' market definition and merger remedy decisions, enabling compelling and timely submissions

Enjoy completeness with access to international content

Know you've covered international precedents by accessing Caselex's comprehensive database of merger decisions, with concise summaries of market definitions and remedies in English

Improved outcomes while managing risks

Experience the Caselex difference and reduce uncertainty with access to the latest and most relevant decisions, while safeguarding the reputation of your firm

Save 75% of research time with Caselex

Global Market Definitions

Access, identify, and understand market definitions drawn from merger control decisions of 62 Competition Authorities across Europe, North America, Asia, Latin America, Africa, and Oceania.

Global Remedies

The Remedies Module captures over 2,000 conditionally cleared merger control decisions, uniquely triangulating relevant markets with competitive concerns and the remedies accepted by Competition Authorities to address them.

Explore precedent global merger decisions by NACE sector, market definition or type of remedy

Identify obstacles, such as likely competitive concerns, early in the deal-making phase and safely plan ahead

Engineer undertakings that are likely to alleviate potential concerns of the ACCC

In the last stages of a challenging notification, ensure that you avoid a prohibition decision and minimise the loss of assets

Experience the Caselex difference

Ask for your Caselex demonstration today

For personalised assistance, call 1 800 772 772. Visit <https://www.lexisnexis.com.au/en/products-and-services/caselex>

