

LexisNexis® Resources & Support

In-Person Training and Support: To schedule an on-site class or in-person training, please contact your Court Librarian.

Web-based Training: Your librarian is available to coordinate webinar and remote-training sessions. A robust curriculum of monthly webinars is available to you.

On-Demand Training: Find the latest videos, guides and product feature overviews at Training on the Go (<https://tinyurl.com/TrainingOntheGo>) where all materials are accessible via your computer or hand-held device.

24/7 Courts Customer Support Hotline: Dial 1.800.59.COURTS to connect with a representative who specializes in answering your questions about LexisNexis products as well providing technical support.

LexisNexis Top Resources and Exclusive Content:

Law360®

Law360®, available exclusively from LexisNexis, is a one-stop source for legal news and analysis on litigation, regulation and deals.

Serial Set

The Serial Set federal historical documents collection offers a robust collection of over 200 years of legislative and regulatory documents. The U.S. Serial Set Digital Collection, 1898 to present, includes full-text PDFs of all House and Senate documents and reports—and more.

Matthew Bender®

LexisNexis has an exclusive and extensive collection of analytical content published by Matthew Bender®—treatises, practice guides and forms—covering a wide array of legal practice areas. This content is renowned for the expertise of its authors, recognized by attorneys and the courts as superior, and updated frequently to ensure currency and comprehensiveness.

New York Times® & Wall Street Journal®

Among more than 20,000 news sources included in the U.S. Courts subscription, LexisNexis® provides the full text and archived issues of The Washington Post®, The New York Times® and The Wall Street Journal®, as well as blogs, web-based publications, trade journals/newsletters and transcripts.