

Double Your Research Speed with the All-in-One Hub

 Nexis® Hub

Nexis® Hub makes it simple to clip web research—along with URLs and metadata—from Nexis® products and the open web, securely organize your findings, then instantly report them out to the tools of your choice (including Microsoft Word).

Analyze competitors. Identify growth opportunities. Check sources. Conduct M&A due diligence. Whatever the research challenge, Nexis® Hub will streamline your workflow, saving as much 50% of your time spent clipping and sharing insight.

Accelerate turning INSIGHTS into ACTION.

Easy integration to eliminate busywork.

Nexis® Hub simplifies and accelerates the research process from start to finish, integrating with the tools you use every day (Google Chrome, Microsoft Edge, and Microsoft Word) to handle the time-consuming tasks of copying, pasting and formatting source information.

Effortless, secure data collection.

Let Nexis® Hub organize all your findings in a single location that brings insight into focus. Detect emerging trends, identify key sources and prioritize what information to highlight in your reports, with the comfort of knowing your data is securely stored in the cloud.

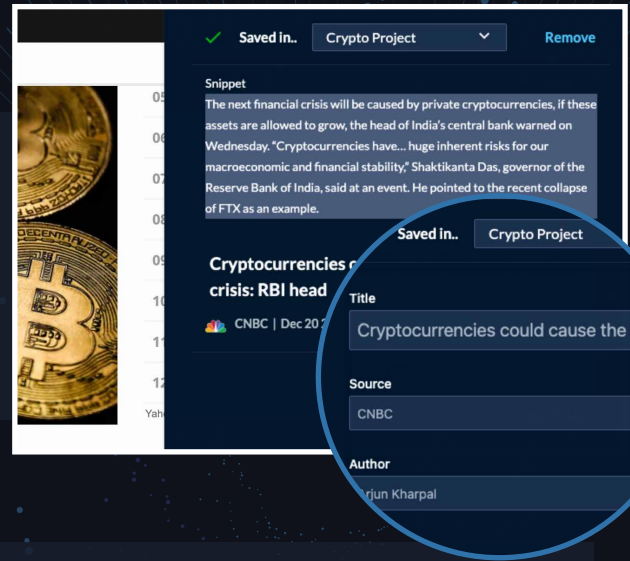

Lightning fast report generation.

When it's time to turn your research into a shareable report, copy and paste individual snippets of insight into your preferred tool, or entire collections of findings all at once. Access your collections directly in Microsoft Word with the easy-to-use free add-in that cuts down on context switching.

It's as easy as CLICK, SAVE, and REPORT.

Here's how Nexis® Hub works:

1 Click the Nexis® Hub Chrome or Edge extension (or use keyboard shortcuts) to save highlighted information from Nexis® products, or free and paid web sources. Collect source links and metadata, along with your personal annotations. Organize your findings into custom collections for each project.

2 Go to the Nexis® Hub collections portal to view your collections in one location for unmatched context, and copy the contents for pasting into your reporting tool.

3 Quickly access and add your findings within Microsoft Word for fast and simple report creation.

Experience Nexis® Hub for yourself.
