

Just for law schools:

New Complimentary eBook—Legal Research Supplement: Exercises on Lexis Advance®

Enhance your current legal research course book and/or workbook with this complimentary up-to-date research supplement on Lexis Advance®, available in eBook format.

This publication is authored by two distinguished legal education professionals, Melissa H. Weresh, professor of law, and Karen Wallace, librarian and professor of law librarianship, at Drake University Law School.

This robust supplement provides a variety of meaningful research exercises covering case law, statutes, secondary sources, citation services and more to incorporate into your class assignments. Or direct students to this resource to further develop their research skills. Students can also link directly to the eBook to further develop their research skills.

Download Now:

Step 1: You must download Adobe® Digital Editions or other app per these instructions. Download Instructions for your laptop, desktop, iPad®, iPhone and e-Reader.

Step 2: Download the teacher (with answers) and student (with answers removed) versions below:

Teacher's version—ePub format

Student's Version—ePub format

Teacher's Version—mobi format

Student's Version—mobi format