NEW EDITION

Florida Guardianship Practice

ELEVENTH EDITION © 2021

This popular title in The Florida Bar estate planning collection offers a concise, complete guide to a dynamic area of law, covering tasks associated with everything from pre-guardianship planning through termination. In addition to exploring guardianship alternatives and stressing tax, medical, and legal issues, it analyzes all facets of practice under F.S. Chapter 744.

The new Eleventh Edition has been updated to reflect rule and statutory changes, as well as current case law. Additional coverage includes:

- Material related to the COVID-19 pandemic, and electronic notarizations
- Contested guardianships, fees as a sanction, and COVID-19 tax considerations
- A fully revised chapter on public and private benefits
- A new chapter on professional guardians
- New forms, including those for designations of health care surrogates, a living will, and a Centralized Intake /Fiduciary Coversheet for veterans guardianship
- Rewritten material on records access, alternatives to guardianships, and conflict with the Baker Act
- Updated material on the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, guardianship reports, orders not to resuscitate, veterans guardianships, the removal of a guardian by statute, and reversing incapacity
- Elaboration on the role of the attorney in guardianship proceedings
- Expanded material on F.S. Chapter 765 (Health Care Advance Directives), assisted living facilities, single custodianships, ethical issues, identifying who the client is, undue influence, determining incapacity, duties of guardians of property, guardian advocates for persons with a developmental disability, the rights and duties of natural guardians, and the restoration of capacity

Florida Practitioner's Guide®: Civil Trial Preparation

TENTH EDITION © 2021

Florida Practitioner's Guide®: Civil Trial Preparation provides step-by-step guidance through all phases of trial preparation, from interviewing the client, to preparing the closing argument and jury instructions. To help advance your case smoothly and efficiently, the practical work provides detailed coverage of trial notebooks, pretrial motions, discovery, and evidentiary issues. Settlement options are also explored in detail as an alternate to trial.

In addition to addressing amended rules, revised statutes, and new case law, the latest edition provides updated forms and coverage of the following hot topics:

- COVID-19 pandemic's impact on trials and depositions
- Current judicial split over the award of punitive damages and express or affirmative findings
- Award of attorneys' fees and requests for admission that would resolve the ultimate issues, if admitted, versus requests for admissions that go to establishing a relevant fact
- Florida courts' recent holding that an order granting a motion to sever is not an appealable nonfinal order
- Court-ordered, nonbinding arbitration and the recent determination that a "request for a trial de novo," has the same meaning as a "motion for trial"
