LexisNexis® Immigration Law Resources

Current and vital resources to help you and your clients navigate the intricacies of immigration law

The complex and vital U.S. immigration system has become more controversial in the wake of the current presidency. Lawyers are scrambling, courts are holding urgent hearings and companies are weighing the ramifications on their workforces. The current political climate is making it harder to master the maze of immigration law and policy. It's as important as ever to keep abreast of changes in the law to proactively serve your immigration clients.

Exclusive publications from the Matthew Bender® Immigration collection provide the solid backing of authoritative and comprehensive analysis, current awareness content and indispensable primary source materials, such as federal court and administrative immigration cases.

Access to immigration statutes and regulation, policy and procedural changes, and "of-the-moment" topics that are critical to immigration law practice will help you effectively respond to large-scale immigration enforcement and actions that impact clients today.
