Washington State Bar Association (WSBA) Deskbooks have become the foundation of many legal practice libraries throughout the state. They represent trusted legal authority and have been cited in over 250 Washington appellate court opinions.

Proven in practice. WSBA Deskbooks are written and edited by Washington lawyers for Washington lawyers. They are replete with practice tips, forms, and checklists and are designed for both experienced and newer practitioners. The Deskbook collection will help you broaden your practice purview, work with efficiency, and tap into the experience of seasoned professionals.

Breadth of coverage. The Deskbooks cover a range of practice areas, from appellate advocacy, business law and construction law, through family law, estate planning, and real property, plus ethics.

BUSINESS & CORPORATE LAW

This recently supplemented Deskbook provides comprehensive coverage of Washington’s Public Records Act, chapter 42.56 RCW, as well as related areas of public access to government records and proceeding, with a focus on the law applicable to making, responding to, and litigating PRA requests.

Shareholder Litigation in Washington State

Charles J. Ha, Editor in Chief

This is a valuable, ready reference for the Washington practitioner faced with potential shareholder litigation or considering legal remedies on behalf of a shareholder of a Washington corporation.

Washington Business Corporation Act (RCW 23B) Sourcebook, Fifth Edition

WSBA Corporate Act Revision Committee

The Washington Business Corporation Act (RCW 23B) Sourcebook assembles in one volume: the text of the original Act and any amendments; official legislative history; the commentary of the Corporate Act Revision Committee of the WSBA Business Law Section used to explain the proposed amendments to the WSBA Board of Governors and the Washington Legislature; and selected judicial case notes.

CONSTRUCTION LAW

Washington Construction Law Deskbook, 2019 Edition

Ronald J. English, Editor in Chief

More than 60 experienced practitioners came together to produce this single-volume resource on every facet of construction law. Every chapter was peer-reviewed by another experienced practitioner, and, because owners and contractors often have differing perspectives, whenever possible peer reviewers were chosen to reflect the perspective that differed from that of the author.

ESTATE, GIFT & TRUST LAW

Heidi L. G. Ort, Thomas M. Culbertson, Editors in Chief

A comprehensive, one-volume resource that provides the authorities and tools—including practice tips, examples, and over 40 customizable forms—that Washington practitioners need to solve real problems in their estate planning and probate practices.

Washington Law of Wills and Intestate Succession, Third Edition

Mark Reutlinger, Professor Emeritus of Law, Seattle University School of Law

The primary reference work on the Washington law of wills and the only comprehensive treatise available on that subject as articulated by Washington courts.

ESTATE, GIFT & TRUST LAW

NEW EDITION

Washington Family Law Deskbook, Third Edition

Mary L. Hammerly, Boaz Weintraub, Cheryl D. Russell, Editors in Chief

This three-volume Deskbook offers comprehensive treatment of every aspect of a family law case, from retainer agreements to the finality of decrees, with practice tips from leading practitioners, judges, and court commissioners.

Washington Community Property Deskbook, Fourth Edition

Tom Andrews, Karen Bix, Ann Murphy

A one-volume, indispensable reference on community property law in Washington covers all substantive developments in Washington community property law including registered domestic partnerships, same-sex marriage, and the law of committed intimate relationships through the U.S. Supreme Court’s June 2013 decision on Section 3 of the federal Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA).
