BUILT FOR HOW YOU WORK

Confidently leap from inquiry to analysis to insight using flexible, intuitive research tools designed for the way legal professionals work.

COMPREHENSIVE SEARCH ➢
Easily search your way—by entering a citation, terms and connectors or a natural language search ... or by using document parts (segments) in a form-based approach ... or by going right to a topic, practice area or jurisdiction.

No matter how you start, you can easily narrow your results further by jurisdiction, practice area, category, sources, date range, etc., and search within results.

PRACTICE CENTERS ➢
Go right to the top sources for your jurisdiction, practice area or industry—all on one page. Choose from more than 60 specialized Lexis Advance® Practice Centers, and make the most relevant one your research start page.

CRITICAL ALERTS
Stay on top of the latest changes in a publication or your search results—covering cases, topics, Shepard’s® analysis, pending legislation, news and more. Share Alerts with others inside and outside your organization.

WORK FOLDERS
Organize your matter and collaborate more easily with folders for storing related legal research results in one place.

STYLE FORMATS ANDANNOTATION TOOLS
Copy citations for your legal documents and choose from a wide range of official- and jurisdictional-style formats. Plus, highlight portions of a document and annotate it for future reference.
VISUALIZING YOUR SEARCH RESULTS

Quickly turn information into insight and insight into action with features that help you visualize your search results.

SEARCH TERM MAPS
See color-coded search terms in helpful patterns and clusters in your case-law search result sets and within case-law documents.
- Preview top search-hit passages throughout a document, including the case summary, headnotes and opinions, and quickly determine if you should view the full text.
- In a full-text case document, see a complete map of search terms to quickly identify where the densest clusters exist and navigate to them.

RESEARCH MAP
Pick up where you left off—and see how to further your research—with a step-by-step graphical depiction of your prior search history.

SHEPARD’S GRAPHICAL
See citing trends across courts and time periods with the Shepard’s Graphical feature, a Lexis Advance exclusive.

LEGAL ISSUE TRAIL™
Quickly find connections between cases, helping you efficiently analyze how an issue has evolved over time.
LEX MACHINA®

Lex Machina® Legal Analytics® integration can help you fine-tune your litigation strategy. Quickly link from full-text Lexis Advance cases to preview summary charts that show:

- Judge caseload by year and practice area
- Average case timing from filing to key events in your judge’s court
- Law firm case filings by year and practice area
- Law firm top clients and top filings courts

Plus Lex Machina subscribers can sign in from Lexis Advance for deep judge and law firm analysis.*

LEGISLATIVE OUTLOOK

Predict passage of federal bills and legislation for all 50 states with State Net® Legislative Outlook. Predictive analytics and sophisticated algorithms combine to give you an at-a-glance meter gauging the likelihood of a bill’s advancement to the next legislative step.†
GOOD LAW MADE SIMPLE

Count on the most comprehensive editorial analysis of case law, statutes, regulations, administrative decisions and more with Shepard’s Citations Service. You can rely on Shepard’s experienced attorney-editors to provide a full spectrum of editorial analysis.

SHEPARD’S PREVIEW

See the big picture before you view a full Shepard’s report. Shepard’s Signal™ indicators—Warning, Questioned, Positive and more—give you a quick look at treatment by the courts.

REASON FOR SHEPARD’S SIGNAL™>

Click once from within a full-text case and see the citing reference that had the strongest influence on the Shepard’s Signal indicator. No other online legal publisher offers this valuable feature.

FULL RANGE OF EDITORIAL ANALYSIS

Unlike other citators, Shepard’s indicates when a case has been “followed” in whole or in part. You can easily uncover splits of authority and gain additional support you can’t find elsewhere.

SHEPARD’S® BRIEFCHECK™

Check citations and quotations in briefs, memoranda and more.

• Validate multiple citations and quotations from your document at once with convenient BriefCheck™ reports—even check quotes within statutes and administrative codes.

• Export BriefCheck results to Microsoft® Excel, if desired, for additional analysis.

SHEPARD’S® BRIEFLINK

• Speed your drafting and citation checking by populating Microsoft® Word documents with Lexis Advance links to legal authority cited. You also have the option to include Shepard’s Signal indicators in your documents.
