Lexis Practice Advisor® Evolving Guidance

Quick Reference Guide

Tired of searching through multiple websites and research products to stay current? The Lexis Practice Advisor® service now brings you an integrated resource to help you learn about and follow emerging developments and trends. In conjunction with Law360®, Evolving Guidance brings together, in one convenient location, the resources you need to get up to speed on new developments and follow them as guidance emerges and new information unfolds."† From current awareness and analysis to practical guidance and tools, you will find the coverage and resources you need in this easy-to-use, integrated view.

Enter from Lexis Practice Advisor
2. Select the practice area of your choice.
4. Choose from the featured developing coverage items and click on the link.
5. You will be taken to the full Evolving Guidance coverage page where you will have the opportunity to select legal news, First Analysis, practical guidance, related form, and, if applicable, cases, statutes and analytical materials.

Enter from Law360
1. In the Law360 service, if you select Expert Analysis coverage you will see references with links to Lexis Practice Advisor Evolving Guidance.
2. Within those stories, subscribers may link directly to related Lexis Practice Advisor guidance.
3. Don't have a subscription to Lexis Practice Advisor? You can link to the free trial setup page.

Once you see a development you are interested in following from either Lexis Practice Advisor or Law360, link to the Evolving Guidance coverage for a full view of related resources.

*Evolving Guidance is limited to select events that are anticipated to have a significant impact and are ongoing in duration. Initially available in the following practice areas: Capital Markets & Corporate Governance, Corporate and M&A, Data Security & Privacy, Financial Services Regulation, Labor & Employment and Real Estate.

†Access to Law360 content from Lexis Practice Advisor will be limited to specific content unless you are a current Law360 subscriber.
Features

Tabs across the top of the Evolving Guidance page allow you to select from the following resources:

Law360 News: Legal news coverage of the event or development as it happens.

First Analysis: Initial guidance to help you and your clients prepare for and react to the effects of a new development impacting your practice. Although more details will emerge in the weeks and months following, First Analysis provides initial insight to assist with planning and preparation.

Practice Notes: Related practical guidance gives you current “how-to” practice notes related to the developing topic. As the development unfolds, new or revised guidance will provide explanations and steps.

Cases, Statutes, Regulations and Analytical Resources: Depending on the nature of the unfolding development, Evolving Guidance will include links to the relevant cases, statutes, regulations and deeper analytical materials such as treatises.

Forms and Checklists: Links to related forms and checklists provide editable forms and lists of important steps.

Support & Training Center—Offers Lexis Practice Advisor support, training, tips, guides, videos and more, just a click away.

Talk to a Representative—Contact a LexisNexis® customer support representative, offering live support virtually 24/7: 800-543-6862.

Training—800-227-9597 ext. 1252111 or Training on the Go.

GET HELP WHEN YOU NEED IT