These Top 8 Lexis Practice Advisor® features offer major benefits

Lexis Practice Advisor® helps attorneys, including in-house counsel, better manage routine transactions so they can focus their expertise on what matters most, whether it be expanding their practice, taking on new matters or advising clients. These popular Top 8 features help you get more done in less time, while providing the exceptional content you expect from LexisNexis®.

1. Our expert authors keep you up-to-date with the latest guidance and fresh perspectives.

Lexis Practice Advisor® has been developed exclusively for attorneys, including in-house counsel, who handle transactional matters, to give an unsurpassed and continuously updated source of authoritative information. Offering fresh perspectives, up-to-date trends and innovative thinking, Lexis Practice Advisor content is written and edited by practicing and former attorneys–so you know you're getting the best content and guidance possible. The best part? You always have access to their expertise with our "Ask Our Authors" feature.

2. Find everything you need to complete your transaction from start to finish—including sample forms, access to leading treatises and top-of-the-line support.

Lexis Practice Advisor helps attorneys draft agreements more efficiently and effectively with important drafting tools including checklists, drafting notes and alternative clauses. Select and edit a wide range of annotated forms, both primary and ancillary documents, that offer unique perspectives and multiple viewpoints from our leading authors. In addition, access to well-established analytical materials from leading treatises such as Matthew Bender® and Collier are provided. If you have any questions, our comprehensive support team and official Resource Center are available 24/7, along with weekly training Webinars to make sure you're spending your time on the important things.

3. Practical guidance helps you get up to speed quickly on transactions you haven't tackled recently.

With access to our exclusive practical notes, Lexis Practice Advisor helps junior attorneys or new in-house counsel become familiar with new matters quickly so they can start billing, which in turn frees up senior attorneys so they spend less time training new associates and more time growing their practice.
Lexis Practice Advisor also guides senior attorneys through nuanced, discrete issues. Get comprehensive coverage of transactions with new practical guidance, checklists, practice tips and insights from experienced attorneys covering the most important topics for your practice.

4. Stay up to date on the latest legal issues and changes.

Keep pace with new issues or refresh your legal knowledge with access to hand-selected articles and white papers, including links to breaking news from Law360® for subscribers of that service, keeping you updated on hot topics and trending issues.

5. Find the content you need quickly and easily through the browsable table of contents and search feature.

Search across all available content—without needing to select specific sources. Get to comprehensive results fast with pre- and post-filters that refine your search based on relevant criteria. Your search can be as narrow or expansive as necessary, allowing you to quickly find what you need.

6. A simple, flat subscription fee eliminates uncertain pricing and unexpected charges.

No per-search costs, no hourly costs—no worries about surprise fees of any kind. Get the most out of your Lexis Practice Advisor subscription by downloading documents, searching practical guidance and catching up on emerging issues as often as you need.

7. The modern, intuitive interface allows you to find exactly what you're looking for with ease.

The new Lexis Practice Advisor features a cleaner look and navigation menu, allowing you to intuitively find what you're looking for and streamlining your workflow. In addition, Lexis Practice Advisor now features improved graphics and design for mobile devices. You choose the mobile device—tablet, laptop or smartphone—and Lexis Practice Advisor responds to fit it.

8. Integrated access to tools and resources lets you seamlessly move among relevant tools to complete your transaction.

Lexis Practice Advisor makes it easier to complete your transactions from beginning to end with access to other important tools right from the home page. In the Banking & Finance, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Securities & Capital Markets offerings, seamlessly move between Lexis Practice Advisor and Lexis® Market Tracker, allowing you to stay current with market and deal trends and extract insights from credit transactions. Compare and analyze deal terms, provisions and clauses with accuracy and precision—and then go straight back into Lexis Practice Advisor to finish the deal. In addition, subscribers of the Knowledge Mosaic® service can go straight to this comprehensive, constantly updated research database from the Securities & Capital Markets homepage. Soon, you'll even be able to move easily among other LexisNexis® products, such as Lexis Advance®, with a single sign-in—allowing you to do all your work in one browser.
