

The Only Complete Product Liability Solution.

Lexis® Product Liability Navigator is the only solution that gives you broad and deep insight, quickly searching beyond case law and across the variety of information types that are key to any product liability case. Results are presented in a visual format that quickly tells a story so decisions can quickly be made.

Built from the bottom up with the insight of product liability attorneys, Lexis® Product Liability Navigator is the only solution that can save you time and reduce risk with immediate insight into the value and viability of a product liability case.

Our dashboard presents only the most important information and cuts out the irrelevant as determined by product liability attorneys.

- ▶ Is the product highly regulated?
- ▶ Is there multi-jurisdictional litigation?
- ▶ How many recalls and reports are there?
- ▶ What is the average award amount over how many cases?

And then dig deeper into any of the result sets to get a more in-depth story so you don't spend hours of un-billable time on research.

No matter your purpose for product liability research:

Evaluating whether to take a case

Determining the best way to win a case

Lexis® Product Liability Navigator is the solution that provides the direction you need.
