

I-698, Application to Adjust Status From Temporary to Permanent Resident (Under Section 245A of the INA)

Instructions

I. Purpose of This Form.

This form is used by a person who was granted temporary residence under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) to apply to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to adjust to permanent resident status. The application is made pursuant to section 245A, of the INA, as amended by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 and section 902 of the U.S. Department of State Authorization Bill of 1987.

II. Eligibility Requirements.

A. In order to be found eligible for permanent residence under section 245A you must:

- (1) Apply for such adjustment during the one year period beginning with the 19th month that begins after the date you were granted such temporary resident status.
- (2) Reside continuously in the United States—that is, since becoming a temporary resident alien no single absence from the United States exceeded 30 days, or the total of all absences exceeded 90 days.

If you are absent from the United States for more than 30 days, or for more than 90 days in the aggregate, during the period for which continuous residence is required for adjustment to permanent residence, you will break the continuity of your residence unless you can establish to the satisfaction of USCIS that you did not, in fact, abandon your residence in the United States during that period.

- (3) Be found admissible to the United States as an immigrant, except as otherwise provided in the provisions of sections 212(a)(5)(A) or (B), 212(a)(7)(A) or (B), 212(a) of the INA;
- (4) Have not been convicted of any felony or three or more misdemeanors committed in the United States;
- (5) Be able to demonstrate that you either:
 - (a) Meet the requirements of Section 312 of the INA, as amended (relating to a minimal understanding of ordinary English and a knowledge and understanding of the history and government of the United States, or
 - (b) Are satisfactorily pursuing a course of study recognized by the Secretary of Homeland Security to achieve such understanding of English and such knowledge and understanding of the history and government of the United States. You can obtain additional information about available courses by contacting your local USCIS district office.

III. Documentary Requirements.

A. Medical Examination.

A medical examination form (I-693) is required only for those applicants who were not given a serologic test for human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection as part of their medical examination when applying for temporary residence.

If you are 15 years of age or older and your medical examination for temporary residence did not include a serologic test for HIV, you should choose a doctor from a list of doctors or clinics in your area that have been approved by USCIS to perform medical examinations and make arrangements with the doctor or clinic to have a serologic test for HIV.

NOTE: If you must comply with this requirement, you do not have to undergo another complete medical examination. The medical examination form needs only to reflect the results of the serologic test.

B. Photographs.

Submit with the application a passport-style color photograph of yourself taken within thirty 30 days of the date of the application. Two additional identical color photographs will be required at the time of the interview. Do not send the two additional photographs with your Form I-698 application.

The photos must have a white background, be glossy, unretouched and not mounted. You must be shown in the photos in a full- frontal position. The dimension of the facial image should be about one inch from your chin to the top of your hair. Your name and Alien Registration Number (A#) file number should be written lightly in pencil on the back of the photographs.

C. Name Changes.

If your name has changed, you must submit a certified copy of the decree of the court or marriage certificate as appropriate. A married woman may file her application under either her maiden or current married name.

D. Copies.

If these instructions tell you to submit a copy of a particular document, you should send a copy. If there are stamps, remarks, notations, etc., on the back of the original document(s), also provide a copy of the back of the document(s).

If you choose to send an original document, you should also submit a copy so USCIS can return the original to you. If you do not provide a copy along with the original, USCIS will attach the original document to your petition and the original document may not be returned to you.

There are times when USCIS must request an original copy of a document. In that case, the original is generally returned after it has been reviewed.

If you are interviewed, however, the original documents must be presented whenever possible at that time except for the following: official government records; employment or employment related records maintained by employers, unions or collective bargaining organizations; medical records; school records maintained by a school or school board; or other records maintained by a party other than the applicant.

Copies of these records must be endorsed as true and correct and must bear the signature and title of persons authorized to act on their behalf. All certified copies of documents become the property of the USCIS. At the discretion of a USCIS district director, original documents, even if accompanied by certified copies, may be temporarily retained.

NOTE: It is recommended that you retain copies of your application and supporting documents for your records.

E. Documents in a Foreign Language.

Any document in a foreign language must be accompanied by a full translation into English. The translator must certify that he or she is competent to translate the document into English and that the translation is accurate.

IV. Application Process.

A. Who Must File an Application?

A separate application must be filed by each applicant. Applications must be typed or clearly printed in black ink and completed in full. If extra space is needed to answer an item, attach a continuation sheet and indicate your name, A90 number and the item number.

B. Interview.

Interviews will take place at selected USCIS offices throughout the United States. It is important that you bring your "appointment for interview notice" and any other requested information to the interview. You must also bring your Form I-688, Temporary Resident Card, to the interview. If your application is approved, your Form I-698 will be modified to reflect temporary evidence of permanent residence until such time as you receive your Form I-551, Permanent Resident Card, through the mail.

V. Confidentiality.

As in the temporary resident application process, the information provided in your permanent resident application is strictly confidential and may only be used to make a determination on the application or for the enforcement of penalties for false statements. The information provided is subject to verification by USCIS.

The authority to require you to file this form is contained in the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. The information is necessary to determine whether you are eligible for permanent resident status. All questions on the form must be answered. Failure to answer any question may result in a processing delay or denial of the application.

VI. Penalties for False Statements.

Whoever files an application for adjustment of status under Section 245A of the Act and who knowingly and willfully falsifies, misrepresents, conceals or covers up a material fact or makes any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements or representations, or makes or uses any false writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry will be subject to criminal prosecution.

VII. Relief From Job Discrimination.

Section 274B of the Immigration and Nationality Act prohibits discrimination in employment hiring and firing based on an individual's national origin or citizenship status.

For additional information concerning immigration related unfair employment, contact the U.S. Department of Justice Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices by mail at P.O. Box 65490 Washington, D.C. 20035-7688 or by telephone at 1-800 255-7688 or 202-653-8121; or 202-653-5710 for the hearing impaired.

VIII. Fee.

A fee of $135.00 for each Form I-698 application is required at the time of filing with USCIS, provided the application is filed within 31 months from the date of adjustment to temporary residence. The maximum amount payable by a family (husband, wife and children under 18 years of age, all living in the same household) is $405.00.

NOTE: For applicants filing after 31 months from the date of approval of temporary status, a fee of $175.00 (a maximum of $525.00 per family) is required. The adjustment date is the date of filing the application for permanent residence or the applicant's eligibility date, whichever is later.

Fees are not refundable regardless of the action taken on the application. All fees must be in the form of a U.S. postal money order, money order or bank check. Cash or personal checks of any type will not be accepted.

All money orders and bank checks must be made payable to the Department of Homeland Security. Do not use the initials DHS or USDHS. You will receive a fee receipt after your application is received and processed by USCIS. Any stop payment action taken by you or your representative will cause the USCIS to terminate action on the application.

IX. Where to File This Application.

If you send this application via the U. S. Postal Service, mail it to the following address:

U.S.Citizenship and Immigration Services
P.O. Box 805887
Chicago, IL 606-80-4120

If you send this application through any other means, mail it to the following address:

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
427 S. LaSalle, 3rd Floor
Chicago, IL 606-80-4120

X. Our Authority for Collecting Information.

The authority to prescribe this form is contained in the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. The information is necessary to determine whether a person is eligible for the immigration benefit sought. Information on race is requested in Question 10 on the form for statistical purposes only. You do not have to give this information. All other questions must be answered. Failure to do so may result in the denial of your application.

XI. USCIS Forms and Information.

To order USCIS forms, call our toll-free forms line at 1-800-870-3676. You can also get USCIS forms and information laws, regulations and procedures by telephoning our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 or visiting our internet website at www.uscis.gov.

XII. Use InfoPass for Appointments.

As an alternative to waiting in line for assistance at your local USCIS office, you can now schedule an appointment through our internet-based system, InfoPass. To access the system, visit our website at www.uscis.gov. Use the InfoPass appointment scheduler and follow the screen prompts to set up your appointment. InfoPass generates an electronic appointment notice that appears on the screen. Print the notice and take it with you to your appointment. The notice gives the time and date of your appointment, along with the address of the USCIS office.

XIII. Reporting Burden.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. We try to create forms and instructions that are accurate, can be easily understood, and which impose the least possible burden on you to provide us with information. Often this is difficult because some immigration laws are very complex. Accordingly, the reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to be one hour per response. This estimate includes the time required to learn about the form, complete the form, and assemble and mail the application. If you have comments regarding the accuracy of this estimate or suggestions for making this form simpler, you can write to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Management Division, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20529. Do not mail your completed application to this address.
