

Know You Are Not Missing On-Point Cases

Whether it's an open memo, brief or research assignment, you need to make sure you aren't missing on-point cases. Shepard's® helps ensure your research is accurate and comprehensive.

Top three tips:

1

POSITIVE ANALYSIS MATTERS (AND IS EXCLUSIVE TO SHEPARD'S)

Shepard's is the only citation service that identifies positive analysis of your cases and statutes. This exclusive analysis makes it easy to find additional authority that follows or affirms your case.

SHEPARD'S CITING DECISION ANALYSIS

Utilize the Shepard's Citing Decisions Analysis chart at the top of each Shepard's report. The chart provides an interactive summary for a quick, jurisdictional view of your case's treatment history.

SHEPARDIZE BY HEADNOTE

LexisNexis® Headnotes are the rules of law taken directly from the language of the case. Shepardize by headnote to find more cases on-point for the rule of law discussed in the headnote. From your case click the Shepardize – Narrow by this Headnote link after each LexisNexis Headnote. In a Shepard's report use the filters on the left.
