

Practical Guidance

Enhancements to the look and feel of Practical Guidance, plus improvements to navigation

LexisNexis[®] Practical Guidance has undergone an upgrade to its appearance, introducing a cleaner and more intuitive experience.

The usual homepage pods have been grouped and consolidated to streamline the layout and generally reduce clutter. All of your usual topics and content are listed as before, but are tidier and easier to browse.

- A You can toggle "Expand all" to see all topics in your module here.
- B Precedents, checklists and tools and resources are located here.
- A module's latest legal updates and most recently updated content can be found here.

We've also introduced a new, central homepage, which gives you a clear view of the practice areas you are subscribed to and allows you to search across all of the content in your subscription, rather than just one practice area at a time.

You can set this central homepage as your starting point for Practical Guidance when you log in, or you can retain your usual practice area homepage as a starting point.

- Search across all modules.
- See all your subscribed modules. And those you aren't subscribed to.
- F You can also access your subscribed Australian content.
